AFTER A 14 MONTH REFURBISHMENT THE COWAP FAMILY HAVE OPENED MUCKRACH COUNTRY HOUSE HOTEL IN THE HIGHLANDS OF SCOTLAND.

A Victorian shooting lodge restored to its former glory, where contemporary meets Victoriana. More luxury has been brought to the Cairngorm National Park, now Muckrach Country House Hotel has opened its doors. Since January 2014 the Cowap family (of The Hollies Farm Shops) has restored this beautiful shooting lodge from the bare bones of a soulless granite building into an opulent and lively hotel with a warm Highland welcome. Everyone can become part of the clan!

A 13 bedroom hotel with Coffee Shop and Restaurant, open 7 days a week from Breakfast through to Dinner. Menus created by Head Chef Rayner Muller offer freshly prepared meals created using the best ingredients from Scotland's larder and local producers. During the day the Coffee Shop menu serves homemade soups, sandwiches and cakes. By night enjoy a brasserie-style menu, presented with passion by the team of Chefs, combining the best seasonal and regional produce.

Enjoy drinks in the Library, Afternoon Tea in the Drawing Room, a grazing menu in the Bar or a G&T on the Terrace. There is a private dining room and meeting room when you want to bring several people together for business or pleasure.

Phil and Ed, the entrepreneurial brothers behind the project, have put their heart and souls into the project, driven by a passion to create something special in an already very special area of the UK. Phil Cowap said "We have invested in the Highlands because we recognise the quality of the visitor offering in the Cairngorms National Park and we wish to enhance visitor experience by adding a luxury hotel to this area. No matter who you are, there are a plethora of reasons to visit the Highlands of Scotland; shooting, fishing, winter sports, adrenalin activities, wildlife and the most stunning scenery that is some of the best in the world. Who can resist mountains, lochs and the purest fresh air? My family loves this area and we just want to create the 'wow-factor' for all to enjoy".

The success of the Forest Lodges (their self-catering accommodation) combined with their passion for the Cairngorm National Park drew them to the purchase of a hotel 400 miles away. The family strives for quality and luxury, whether that is in their food, presentation or customer experience.

The family's business ethos is to work closely with local businesses, the community and source locally wherever possible. Phil and Ed aspire for the hotel to become a destination for local residents, tourists and business where they can enjoy quality surroundings, delicious food and be served by lovely people.

From sunrise to star filled nights our reputation for delicious, quality food offerings in our other businesses is replicated at Muckrach. A Highland welcome awaits you!
